Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the criminal complaint and the information provided in the pretrial services report and at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

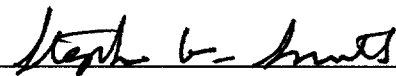

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 24 year-old citizen of Columbia with no legal status in the United States. U.S. Immigration and Custom Enforcement has issued a detainer against him.
2. Defendant has been charged with being an illegal immigrant in possession of a firearm and ammunition that moved in and affected interstate commerce in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(5)(A) and 924(a)(2). Defendant faces a potential penalty of up to 10 years confinement.
3. Defendant has no known criminal history in the United States. His personal history is unknown.
4. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
